

MARINES LAND ON CUBAN SOIL

PRESIDENT GOMEZ UNABLE TO COPE WITH SITUATION.

Troops Dispatched by Capt. Cline to Guard Plantations—Four Battleships Sent From Key West—Situation in Guantanamo Becoming Alarming.

Havana, June 5.—American marines have landed on Cuban soil.
To the number of 50, under command of Capt. Cline, they came ashore to day at Calmanera and proceeded by train to Guantanamo City.

While it is officially declared that this action was taken solely to protect American and other foreign properties the impression became general that it was a preliminary step to American intervention. This caused considerable excitement at the capital. Later it became known that the landing was in response to an urgent appeal to the commandant of the United States naval station by the Chamber of Commerce of Guantanamo to afford protection to the numerous foreign estates in the vicinity, which the government forces have been unable effectively to guard. One hundred and twenty additional marines were dispatched this evening to Guantanamo, and the American force probably will be able to safeguard the foreign properties in that district.

Excitement in Havana.
There was great excitement in Havana this afternoon on the circulation of a report that four American battleships were on their way from Key West. Towards evening the rumor was current that the ships had been sighted off Morro Castle and were expected to enter the harbor within an hour. The excitement subsided on receipt of the news that the ships had been ordered to Guantanamo.

The senate convened late to day and approved the recommendation of the committee on laws, that the president be empowered to suspend the constitutional guarantees, but only in the province of Oriente.
This was approved also by the house of representatives, without opposition.

The senate passed a bill authorizing President Gomez to spend $1, 000,000 for increase of the armed forces.

Washington, June 5.—Frank confession of President Gomez that he was unable to meet the demands of the large plantation owners in eastern Cuba for adequate guards against the marauders and insurrects, was the factor that to day led Captain Cline, commanding the United States station at Guantanamo, to set in motion the body of United States marines gathered there for just such a purpose.

Captain Cline's action in dispatching nearly half of his available force of marines into the interior of Cuba gave the signal for the departure from Key West to Guantanamo of half of the second squadron of the Atlantic fleet, which had been lying at anchor at Key West for the last week.

Plantation Owners Demand Troops.
The facts as disclosed at the state department are that several of the large American, British, French and Spanish companies operating plantations and mines in eastern Cuba, telegraphed the Cuban government through the Alcaide of Guantanamo, a demand for details of regular troops for each of their mills and cane fields. In reply President Gomez pointed out that his whole regular army would not suffice for police work alone, if their request were acceded to, and he would have no forces left with which to carry on the campaign against the insurrectionists.

Meanwhile complaints multiplied, the situation in Guantanamo becoming more alarming and the Guantanamo Sugar company had definite information that the rebels intended to destroy one or more of the foreign estates there. The manager of the Spanish-American Iron company having declined a meeting with a rebel leader with 100 followers near Cuero, was threatened with the destruction of all property between that place and Juragua.

Appeal to Capt. Cline.
To add to all this the owners and representatives of several of the large American properties near Guantanamo having failed in their application to the Cuban government appeal directly to Captain Cline.
Captain Cline, judging that the gravity of the situation demanded the use of American guards, this morning sent 450 of his marines from the naval station by boat to Guantanamo Bay to a landing place near Calmanera, the terminus of the railway running up to the city of Guantanamo, 15 miles inland. The gunboat Paducah, about the same time reported the situation at Sant-ago as critical, which determined Captain Cline to call upon the navy department for more marines.

Two Battleships to Guantanamo.
Accordingly Admiral Osterhaus promptly dispatched from Key West to Guantanamo the fourth division of the Atlantic fleet, comprising the battleships Ohio, Missouri, Mississippi and Minnesota. They are under command of Rear Admiral Usher.
He can easily land 1,200 marines, which force, with the marines and sailors available for landing parties would make an army of about 3,000 men. If this force is not sufficient, Admiral Osterhaus remaining four vessels may be called upon for further levies. For the

INTEREST GROWS IN DARROW CASE

BOOK OF ORIGINAL CANCELLED CHECKS PLAYS PART.

Co-operation of Government and State Shown in Flather's Testimony of Bank Which Handled McNamara Funds.

Los Angeles, June 5.—The apparent interest of the federal government in the Darrow case was indicated by the introduction of evidence said to have been turned over to the district attorney by the department of justice. This included the book of cancelled checks originally drawn upon the McNamara defense fund by Frank Morrison in favor of Clarence Darrow. The book was taken before the federal grand jury at Indianapolis by Morrison, when he was subpoenaed early this year to testify in the dynamic investigation.

The apparent co-operation between the government and state was shown further when H. B. Flather, cashier of the Washington bank, which had on deposit the McNamara defense fund, testified upon cross-examination that he was first asked about testifying at the trial by an official of the department of justice in Washington.

A considerable portion of the day's session was devoted by the prosecution to reading into the record or dall of the checks sent to Darrow by Morrison. The aggregate amount of the checks was $219,999.

ARCHITECT TAYLOR RESIGNS.
Washington, June 5.—James Knox Taylor, supervising architect of the treasury department today tendered his resignation to the secretary of the treasury to take effect June 15. Mr. Taylor says he intends engaging in private business.

Mr. Taylor, who is a native of Illinois entered the supervising architect's office as a senior draughts-man in 1895. He was promoted through the various grades in the office until in 1897 he was appointed supervising architect.

WEDDING IN ARMY CIRCLES.
New York, June 5.—Army officers in full uniform, with their wives and daughters filled the Church of St.
Cornelius the Centurion on Governor's Island today at the wedding of Miss Stella L. Dunn, daughter of Lieut. Col. Beverly Dunn, U. S. A., retired, and Lieut. Allen Kimberley, U. S. coast artillery. Lieut. Kimberley will take his bride to Port Monroe, Va., where he is stationed.

TO SAVE LOSS OF LIFE.
Washington, June 5.—In the hope of curtailing the loss of life in the mining industry the house to day passed a bill introduced by Representative Foster of Illinois, extending authority of the federal bureau of mines to the mining of slate, granite and other products of the earth.

FIRE WIPES OUT TOWN.
Montreal, June 6.—A despatch received by the Canadian Pacific Railroad Telegraph company at an early hour this morning, says Colait, in Northern Ontario, had been wiped out by the fire. The fire started in a theater. Direct telegraphic communication with Colait was cut off.

present it is the policy of the state department to maintain the third division of the fleet at Key West to guard against any uprising in Havana.

In one way the distribution of the American marines as plantation guards will serve to test the real purpose of the Cuban government.
It is calculated that General Monteagudo's troops, being relieved in a large part from the duty of guarding plantations will no longer have excuse for falling to move immediately and relentlessly upon the insurgents.

Negroes Attack Women.
There is grave intimation in recent tragedies that this may become an international duty if the Cuban government longer delays action.
Minister DuPre to day reported a case of horrible atrocity which occurred yesterday near Santiago de Cuba, which he believed to be only one of many similar cases. His information, derived directly from the Cuban secretary of state, was to the effect that a band of negroes entered the house of a former white official of prominence, tied him and his son and outraged his wife and two young daughters before their eyes. The son was killed in cold blood while endeavoring to break his bonds and rescue his mother and sisters.

The army continues to rather hungrily watch the unfolding of events in Cuba. Lying on General Wood's desk are the messages, which if released, would send an army division into Cuba within a week or ten days. But that situation has existed for three months and is only illustrative of careful preparation that has been done by the general staff.

Havana, June 5.—Apprehension in Havana over the rumor of a local negro uprising is abating. The police are exercising the utmost vigilance. The garrisons at Camp Columbia, Cabaneta, and LaPuerza are prepared to respond to an instant call to arms. The reported out-raging of the daughters of Perez Carbo, a prominent official of Santiago, hurrying details of which were published, is authoritatively denied. The only authenticated case is that of a school mistress, who later died in a hospital at Santiago.

CHAIRMAN FIGHT HOTLY CONTESTED

Taft Forces Plan Control OF NATIONAL CONVENTION.

Hearing of Contested Delegate Cases Will Begin Today—Ultimate From Roosevelt Is That Root Must Not Be Selected Temporary Chairman.

Chicago, June 5.—A plan to meet at once the full force of Colonel Roosevelt's fight to control the national convention by making permanent the temporary organization with Senator Elihu Root as chairman, was agreed on today by Taft leaders, who are here for the opening session of the Republican national committee tomorrow.

The control of the national committee by Taft forces is said to be certain by members to the president's candidacy.

When the organization meets at 2 o'clock tomorrow to organize for the hearing of contested delegate cases, the Roosevelt forces will not attempt either to seat R. B. Howell of Nebraska, to succeed acting Chairman Roosevelt or to select a Roosevelt committee as presiding officer for the contest hearings.

Roosevelt Not Behind Howell.
Fresh from conferences with Colonel Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, Senator Dixon and National Committee man Wm. L. Ward of New York made it clear that the Roosevelt managers were not behind the claim of Mr. Howell to a seat on the committee. He will endeavor to present his own case, contending that his recent endorsement in the Nebraska primary entitles him to the seat, but members of the committee expect a speedy decision against him. The committee will select a successor to Chairman John P. Hill, of Maine, who died last winter; adopt rules to govern the hearing of the contest cases, decide whether to give publicity to the hearings and arrange the time to be allotted for each case. There are at present more than 238 delegate seats in the convention for which contests have been prepared by either Taft or Roosevelt.

The first of the cases will be taken up Friday morning.

Sensors Crane, Penrose and Sanders, who arrived from Washington today were busy throughout the rest of the day canvassing the situation. It is said that Taft leaders ward at least 35 of the 53 members of the national committee as favorable to the president's candidacy.

Determined to Seat Root.
The ultimatum from Colonel Roosevelt that Senator Root must not be selected as temporary chairman, which was reiterated by Senator Dixon on his arrival in Chicago, was met by a strengthening of the Taft forces in opposition. The Taft leaders determined not only to adhere to their purpose to seat Senator Root but to call upon their forces to help make him the permanent chairman of the convention when it meets June 18.

The fight by Roosevelt attorneys for the contested delegates from the southern states will include a claim of legality for every convention where they said they had a majority of the delegates.

It is contended that in many cases delegates kept out of the convention halls and were such excluded delegates would have made a majority Roosevelt's representatives will demand that their conventions be recognized as the "regular" ones.

To Fight Senator Root.
Senator Dixon held a short conference with Roy O. West, chairman of the Illinois Republican state central committee and later said that the 56 Illinois delegates instructed for Roosevelt would join in the fight against Senator Root.

The Taft leaders exhibited great confidence during the day in their ability to secure scores of so-called Roosevelt delegates for the support of Senator Root when the issue is forced by Colonel Roosevelt. Conferences participated in by Senators Crane and Penrose, Director McKinley of the Taft national bureau, and many Taft adherents at the national committee were followed by the prediction that delegates from Illinois, Maryland, Kansas, Oregon and other states who will vote for the fight against Senator Root.

nois, Maryland, Kansas, Oregon and

Representative McKinley, in a statement answering Senator Dixon's comment on the capture of Ohio's six delegates at large by President Taft said:

"It makes no difference to them that these delegates to the Ohio state convention were elected at a popular primary. They were instructed for no candidate at the primary and they got no credit for using their best judgment and discretion in their action. On the contrary, in Oyster Bay and in Chicago they are called 'brigands' 'robbers' and 'thieves.' The answer is plain, they did not do as Theodore Roosevelt wished them to do."

It was tentatively agreed tonight that the plan of publicity of hearings of contested delegates seats would provide for the admission to the sessions of two representatives of each press association recognized in the press galleries at Washington.

LATEST RETURNS FROM DAKOTA

Plurality of Roosevelt Delegates May Reach 15,000—Gamble's Supporters Still Have Hope.

Sioux Falls, S. D., June 5.—Latest returns from the South Dakota primary election indicates that the plurality for the Roosevelt delegates may reach 15,000. On governor estimates of returns a majority of Egan vary from 10,000 to 15,000.

Thomas Sterling's friends claim his nomination over Senator Gamble by 8,000 to 12,000 plurality. The Gamble men do not concede the senator's defeat.

Gamble Carries State.
Late tonight Senator Gamble's friends insisted he had carried the state by 2,000. On the other hand the Sterling managers placed the plurality for their candidate at 10, 000.

Former Assistant Postmaster at Wilmington Must Pay Penalty for Embezzlement.

Chicago, June 5.—Royal A. Coash, former assistant postmaster at Wilmington, Ill., to day pleaded guilty to embezzling $882 from the Wilmington postoffice, before Federal Judge Carpenter.

Coash withdrew his plea of not guilty after announcement by the court that the jury would not be directed to return a verdict of not guilty on motion of the defendant.

Coash did not put in any testimony to refute that given by the government witnesses, except calling witnesses, who testified to his reputation and standing in Wilmington.

Sentence was deferred for two weeks.

stop at the stock yards all buildings must be of fire proof construcold practice.

missioner for Minnesota tonight announced that he would endeavor

KERN CONTINUED LORIMER SPEECH

SAID DUTY WAS PAINFUL IN QUESTIONING RIGHT OF ILLI-NOISAN TO SENATE SEAT.

Expressed Complete Faith in Testimony of Clarence Funk—Sarcastic in References to Hines—Senator Lorimer in Pleasant Mood Corrected the Speaker at Several Points.

Washington, June 5.—Senator Kern of Indiana concurred today the second installment of his speech in opposition to Senator Lorimer and gave notice that he would endeavor to conclude before adjournment tomorrow. The senator analyzed the evidence during the senate's second investigation contending that much evidence that was new and important had been developed. Senator Lorimer, who was in a very cheerful mood, expressed the opinion that the debate on his case would continue several weeks. Several times he interrupted Senator Kern's speech and gave close attention to the arraignment of himself by Mr.
Kern. Occasionally during the day
Mr. Lorimer talked with Mr. Kern, joking him about remarks as to the feeling he might have against those who would vote against him.

Senator Kern declared that his duty of questioning Mr. Lorimer's right to his seat was particularly painful because Lorimer was a fellow senator from an adjacent state, with pleasing personality, pure private and ideal home life, a genial and kindly man. He said he was convinced of the absolute truth of the testimony of Clarence S. Funk, general manager of the International Harvester company, "who had taken no interest in the senatorial election and had not the slightest personal feeling against Senator Lorimer."

The Funk and Hines Incident.
He referred to the issue of veracity between Funk and Edward Hines of Chicago.

To illustrate Mr. Hines' "method of procedure, notions of propriety and the accuracy of his memory," Senator Kern said he would call attention to Mr. Hines' efforts to induce Virgil H. Cook and Lee O'Neil to leave Chicago to evade process, when the grand jury investigation of the so-called White exposure of the alleged bribery was in progress. Mr. Hines testified regarding a telephone message from Duluth concerning Cook while the grand jury was investigating the "so-called jackpot bribery," and Mr. Kern referred to Hines, sarcastically quoting Hines as explaining that the telephone conversation if related to the grand jury would only burden that body with irrelevant matter which could throw no possible light on its inquiry.

Then the great sympathetic heart of Hines," added the senator, "was moved compassionately toward Governor Deenen, whom he desired to protect from any kind of embarrassment. It revealed the noble sentiments of a Christian gentleman."

Referred to Speaker Miller.
Discussing the existence of a jackpot in the Illinois legislature previous to 1909, Mr. Kern spoke of ex-Speaker Miller of the Illinois legislature, who, he said, had died after exposing the presence of that fund.
The reference brought Senator Lorimer to his feet with a question.

"Does the senator know," the accused senator asked the speaker,
"that Governor Deenen and I, and the newspaper combination in this case drove Miller to his death by their persecution?"

Senator Kern said he did not know it, but if true, the fact would accentuate his accusation that conditions at Springfield were of a character to shock the conscience of the country.

Challenging Mr. Kern's statement about the report about the majority of the committee, Senator Dillingham said there had been no evidence that there was a jackpot, or that, if there had been corruption, Lorimer had not been connected with it.

"I myself believe that previous to 1909 there had been corruption but it was not proven," he said.
"If the senator believes that, it would have been easy to put it into the report," replied the Indiana senator, who also expressed the opinion that some of the committee had been unduly prejudiced against circumstantial evidence.

Lorimer's Attitude to Deenen.
Later Mr. Lorimer against interrupted the speaker to correct the latter's statement concerning the Illi-noisian's attitude toward Governor Deenen as a senatorial candidate in 1909.

"It is only fair that the senator should not misrepresent my attitude toward Governor Deenen," he said.
"My support was based upon the theory that Deenen's election would be in the interest of the Republican party. I never made any pretense that I favored him because I loved him as the senator from Indiana has stated."

OFFICERS ELECTED.
Chicago, June 5.—The Baptist general state convention members of which represent the negro Baptist churches of the state, opened today.
Rev. E. L. Scruggs, of Monmouth, Ill., presided.

Rev. D. H. Harris of Chicago was elected president and E. C. Cole, Springfield, Ill., a vice-president.

ELECTROCUT FOR CRIME.
Boston, June 6.—Erich Mascoli of Hull, who with Mrs. Lena Cusumano, was convicted of murder of the woman's husband, Frank Cusumano, was electrocuted at the state prison at Charlestown this morning.

TALK OF PERMANENT CHAIRMANSHIP NOW

SENATOR ROOT IS TAFT'S CHOICE FOR THAT POSITION.

Indications Are That President and His Friends Will Fight Roosevelt at Every Point—Sec. Hilles On Way to Chicago.

Washington, June 5.—President Taft's choice for permanent chairman of the Republican national convention is Senator Elihu Root of New York, already selected by the Republican national committee as the temporary chairman of that convention. In spite of the opposition of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and some of his advisers to Senator Root as temporary presiding officer of the convention Mr. Taft today declared that Mr. Root also should receive his support for the permanent chairmanship.

The news that the president had reached this decision was taken tonight in Washington as a further indication that the president and his friends intend to fight Roosevelt at every point, and was also said to show that the president is confident that he has the votes necessary to insure the selection of the New York senator in spite of determined opposition, and make permanent the temporary organization of the convention.

Politicians still in the capital were inclined to look with favor upon
Mr. Root for the permanent office.
They said that his selection would insure the occupancy of the chair by a man who could not be moved by the flatteries and who could be counted upon to make his rulings in an impersonal way.

The information that the president would like Mr. Root made permanent chairman followed closely the departure of his secretary, C. D.
Hilles for Chicago. Mr. Hilles will have charge of the president's interests before the national committee and the convention. He will be in constant communication with the white house. He will not interfere in any way with other Taft leaders now in Chicago but will be a personal representative of his chief.

ILLINOIS ASSEMBLY HAS ADJOURNED

Two Special Sessions Went Quietly
Out of Existence Wednesday at 6 O'clock—Few Members in Attendance.

Springfield, Ill., June 5.—With Speaker Adkins and only half a dozen house members in attendance, the two special sessions of the forty-seventh general assembly, breathe their last at 6 o'clock to night. The quiet scenes attending the sine die adjournment was widely at variance with those which have accompanied other adjournments of the Illinois legislature.

The bulk of the house membership caught the early afternoon trains for their homes. The senators finished their work early in the day and had left the capital by noon.
Speaker Adkins, Representatives
Shamahan and Lyon and a few others spent the afternoon in the speakers' room waiting for the enrolling and enrolling department to deliver the last of the bills to the executive office. At 6 o'clock Representative Lyon reported the delivery of all the bills to the governor. This fact was incorporated in the journals of the two sessions, after which each adjourned without delay.

THIEVES LOOT RESIDENCE.
Chicago, June 5.—When Samuel W. Allerton and his wife returned from California today they found their home in Prairie avenue, a not only had been robbed but had also been lived in by thieves. Paintings, oriental vases and rugs and a collection of lace, all said to be valued at $50,000 were taken. The house had been boarded up for the winter and the thieves are believed to have lived in the house for many days, taking away the property at leisure.

OBJECTS TO BILL.
Washington, June 5.—John P.
Irish of San Francisco, a former lawyer, appeared before a subcommittee of the committee on immigration of the house today and stated objections to American commercial bodies to the Baker bill which is aimed at Asiatic immigration into the United States. He declared the fact of the bill being presented had ruined "our commercial relations with the far east."

An enactment of the bill into law he contended, would sever diplomatic relations with China and Japan.

WILSON IN MINNESOTA.
Duluth, Minn., June 5.—Delegates are pouring into the city to attend the Democratic state convention which is to meet here tomorrow to elect the Minnesota delegates to the national convention at Baltimore. The Woodrow Wilson managers predict an instructed delegation for the New Jersey governor, basing their calculations on the results of the recent county conventions.

OF GREAT ASSISTANCE.
Havana, June 5.—President Gomez, in a signed statement tonight appears satisfied with the action of the United States landing marines and says it will be of great assistance to Cuban military operations as it permits the government to utilize more troops against the

IMPORTANCE OF G.O.P. CONTESTS

Chicago, June 5.—Practically all of the members of the Republican national committee are in Chicago in readiness to begin hearing delegates' contests tomorrow. The function of the national committee is always important because it decides in advance who are to have seats when the convention is called to order. In other words, it makes up the temporary roll. The work is especially important, because of the unusually large number of contests. With upwards of 250 contests to consider and act upon, it is likely that the committee will find it necessary to continue its hearings almost up to the day the convention assembles.

The national committee is composed of 53 members, one each of the 48 states, and one each from the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, the Philippines and Porto Rico. Much speculation has been indulged in concerning the personal preferences of the committee on the question of the presidential nomination. The majority has been claimed by both Taft and Roosevelt. On the other hand, those who are best acquainted with the high personnel of the committee, are of the opinion that each contest will be decided upon the evidence. They believe that the cases will be settled as they would be settled in a court of equity and that the delegates entitled to seats in the convention will be seated. In a general way Senator Dixon and Representative McKinley, the rival campaign managers, will look after the contests. But those more directly in charge will be ex-Senator Dick of Ohio, who will look out for the interests of President Taft, and Ormsby H. McFarland of New York, who will serve in a similar capacity for Colonel Roosevelt.

Mrs. Charlotte Gordon and daughter Frankie of Lynville were shopping in the city yesterday.

Madening Rapid Transit.

The accommodation trains of Germany seldom fail to provoke the wrath of American travelers. One of them thus vented his feelings in a letter home:

"One morning I saw from the carriage window a square forty acre field of some unknown grain. It stretched for a quarter of a mile along the track, and we were just at the first quarter of it. A feeble old man with a reaping hook had begun at that corner to mow directly away from the track round the field. Calling out to him, I asked the name of the grain, but he was probably deaf and did not hear. I sat watching him awhile and then put my question to the passengers. I went to every one in the car, but no one could answer my question. However, with some my inquiry served as an introduction, and I passed the day very pleasantly in conversation. Going toward evening, into the smoking compartment, I settled down to read a newspaper, and as the air was close I asked a window. A sharp sound of clashing steel struck my ears. I looked out. We had now arrived by a direct line at the far corner of the field. And the old man, having mowed along three sides, was there, whetting his blade."—Youth's Companion.

Preparing For the Wedding.

There was to be a wedding in eastern Kentucky. Many of the mountaineers would be there. Early in the morning of the nuptial day Bud Hightower was noticed filling an old No. 12 shoe with slugs and nails and plaster of paris.

"Wot you doin', Bud?" drawled Sim Treasley.

"Kain't you see wot I'm doin'?" I'm makin' moonshine sperrits out'n cheese scrapin'."

Sim chuckled.

"Gettin' good an' ready fr th' wedding, I reckon."

"I reckon."

"Goin' to throw it at th' bridegroom, maybe?"

"Goin' to throw it at him, maybe, but it ain't goin' to hit him. It's goin' to break th' face of Suipie Tolliver an' do it accidental too. I been layin' fr that th' Suipie fr a right smart spell."

And he drove an extra railway spike in the lumbering mass. — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Powdering Closet.
When capricious fashion ruled that ladies should wear only white hair—the color supplied by nature being of no importance—the operation of putting on the powder made special arrangements necessary. These took the form of a special room or cabinet, and in every house of any pretension a small chamber was set aside for the exclusive use of powdering the hair. A curtain divided in the middle, a powdering stand to hold the bowl of powder and possibly a stool were at that the closet contained, and through this curtain the lady whose head was to be powdered protruded her head, the maid standing on the other side and "throwing" the powder at her head by means of a powder puff. To preserve the eyes and complexion a mask was held to the face. Unfortunately, no illustration of a "powdering closet" seems to have been preserved.—Courier de Louvres.

M'CARTY STARTS TRAINING.
Springfield, Mo., June 5.—Luther McCarty, the local heavy-weight who knocked out Carl Morris, the Oklahoma "white hope," here May 9, to night left for Philadelphia to start training for his bout there with Tom Logan of the battleship Connecticut June 19.

DECIDE AGAINST STRIKE.
Brussels, June 5th.—The council of the labor party today decided against an immediate general strike. At Brussels rioting was resumed to night and many persons were hurt. There were frequent police clashes, both sides employing great violence. Several of the police were wounded by bullets.

REMOVAL OF SHOPS AGAIN DISCUSSED

Reports From Springfield Are That C. P. & St. L. Will Move Plant to That City—Local Business Men's Association Sends Letter to General Manager.

Reports from Springfield have been circulated to the effect that for a bonus of $10,000 and a guarantee of water at the six cent rate for a period of twenty years, the officials of the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis railway have agreed to move shops from Jacksonville to that city. The twenty year agreement, which the company had with Jacksonville, expired last September and since then there has been more or less talk of removal. While the force of men employed at the shops recently has not been so large, there are still 125 men who have work there and it is to be hoped that the shops can be kept in this city.

With commendable zeal the Business Men's association has taken the matter up and has addressed a communication to General Manager J. P. Ramsey, which is as follows:

J. P. Ramsey, Esq., Gen. Mgr., C. P. & St. L. R. R., Springfield, Ill.
Dear Sir:

We do not want anyone to feel that we want to lose your shops by default of any effort on our part to retain them here. We built them originally for your road and we would like to keep them, and we want you to say what you expect of us to retain them here and we will make an effort to meet your demands.

The shops may be somewhat out of the zone of your present operation, but I believe that the location you have here is such that you are able to attract a more desirable class of workmen, whose habits are steadier and are not subject to the strife which is so common to labor conditions that are in fact remote from the city of Springfield. This one item alone in my opinion will offset the difference of location by reason of the fact that you are more certain of a good reliable working force.

A great many of the men who are in the employ of your company here were born and raised here, this is their home, and it is the place which most interests them and they almost to a man feel a deep interest in your remaining here. They own their own homes and have their children in the schools here which is an advantage that will not be possible for them to secure in another place for the reason that we excel particularly in this line.

We urgently request that you give this matter your careful consideration and we will be glad to go over this subject with you personally and we can assure you in advance that if you have in mind any amount of money that will induce you to remain here, that this proposition merits we can meet the same.

Thanking you in advance for a reply, we are,

Yours respectfully,
Jacksonville Business Men's Assn.
Per Bernard Gaud, Vice-Pres.

Unmistakable Hint.

The orchestra played No. 6, a selection that seemed to the bachelor very beautiful. He leaned toward his companion and whispered:

"How lovely that is! What is it, do you know?"

She smiled demurely and replied in a low, thrilling voice:

"It is the 'Maiden's Prayer.'"

And at the same time she handed him her program, pointing to No. 6 with her finger.

He read and started, for the real name of the selection was "Mendelssohn's Wedding March." The bachelor bought the ring next day.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

EXHIBITION OF BRITISH SILKS.

London, June 5.—The first public exhibition ever held in connection with the silk industries of the United Kingdom was opened today at the Princes' Skating rink. The exhibition is held under the auspices of the British Silk association, which was founded 25 years ago by a body of representative women, including several members of the royal family, who were desirous of encouraging and stimulating the silk industry as much as lay within their power.

Few British manufacturers have prospered more than the making of silk, although the industry does not occupy the important place that it did years ago. Silk was manufactured in England in the reign of James I, who took a great interest in the welfare of the industry, but it was not until 1685, when the revocation of the edict of Nantes sent a stream of Huguenots into England, that the trade reached the zenith of its prosperity and importance. Among these refugees were many skilled weavers and they established themselves in Spitalfields, where they set up looms in their own homes. For a century and a half this colony was the center of the silk trade in England, after which period the industry gradually declined until it can no longer be looked upon as a national asset. Of late years the output has been limited, though the higher grades of British silks are still looked upon as the best in the world.

COFFEE BLENDING VS. MIXING

Several years ago we learned there was an art in blending coffee, that just mixing them would not do. Its something like making salad dressing. You mix several ingredients of an entirely different nature together and the result is a delicious blend. Just as it takes an artist to make Blue Ribbon salad dressing, so is experienced knowledge necessary in making smooth, perfect blends of coffee. While we do not know all about the subject, we do know that we have perfected six blends of coffee of a quality and at a price which have "taught out" remarkably well. We will be especially glad to have you try any of these blends, knowing that a trial will prove their merits.

COFFEE FACTS WE KNOW.

We do know that Roberts six blends give satisfaction every time they are used.

Blend No. 1—Listen, Roberts' Blend No. 1 Roast Coffee makes 50 per cent more liquor than the mild, cheap characterless coffees, and Ohi such liquor. Price only 45 cents per pound.

Blend No. 2—We consider this blend the most pleasing flavor and the greatest strength that is possible to produce for the price. A perfect blend and only 40 cents per pound.

Blend No. 3—Much like our Blend No. 2, a fine, rich coffee and one that pleases coffee lovers. Always the same and one of our best sellers. Price, only 37½ cents.

Blend No. 4—A very satisfying flavored coffee. Large handsome beans and very rich cup quality. Our Big Leader. This blend we recommend to coffee lovers for a universal satisfying cup of good coffee. Price only 35 cents per pound.

Blend No. 5—Beautiful, large, handsome bean and very rich in cup quality. Another of our big leaders. Price only three pounds for $1.00.

BLEND NO. 6—OUR CHEAPEST COFFEE (BUT BY NO MEANS IS IT THE CHEAPEST COFFEE TO BE HAD). BLEND NO. 6 IS A TRUE BLEND OF OLD CROP COFFEE, A COFFEE SMOOTH AND RICH IN FLAVOR, A COFFEE BOUGHT EARLY AND SOLD ACCORDINGLY. OUR BIGGEST SELLER. PRICE ONLY 28 CENTS.

The strawberry crop is at its height and we have fine berries every day and the prices are the lowest. Choice Cuban pineapples at very low prices. They are choice and this is the time for canning. Those who seek absolute flour satisfaction will find it in "Sleepy Eye" flour. The best processes known to milling are used in making Sleepy Eye flour. The price remains the same in spite of the high wheat market: one-eighth barrel 95 cents; one-fourth barrel $1.85; one-half barrel, $3.50; one barrel $6.50.

CLASS OF '57 REUNION.

The most enjoyable of any of the class reunions of commencement week at Illinois college, perhaps, was that of the class of '57. Only a few members of that class are now living and they were all in the city Wednesday and enjoyed a reunion last evening at the Dunlap house. They are Col. George H. English of Kansas City, Marshall Potts of White Hall and Stephen R. Capps of this city. To this class belonged a number of distinguished alumni, among them the much loved President Tanner and the late Judge Branson of Petersburg.

WAS SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Miss Leita Mansfield, whose parents reside on North Main street, is a patient at Our Savior's hospital suffering from a fracture of the skull as the result of an accident which occurred at Nichols park Tuesday evening. Miss Mansfield went out with a party of Sunday school children and while playing tetter totter all from the board in such a manner that her head hit the hard ground. Dr. F. A. Norris was called and an examination showed that some sharp substance must have come in contact with the girl's head. Her condition is thought quite serious.

Mrs. M. A. McLaughlin, 512 Jay St., La Crosse, Wis., writes that she suffered all kinds of pains in her back and hips on account of kidney trouble and rheumatism. "I got some of Foley Kidney Pills and after taking them for a few days there was a wonderful change in my case, for the pain entirely left my back and hips and I am thankful there is such a medicine as Foley's Kidney Pills. A new electric lighting system and plumbing system had been installed and other recent improvements made. The building was insured for $30,000.

MEET.

The ladies of the local union met at Nichols park and enjoyed a delightful picnic supper, Tuesday at 6:30. A toast to our president was given by Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Robinson not being able to be present her response by letter was read by Mrs. Bowen.

Mrs. Grey then gave a reading of an original poem, written by one of the union which is given below:

An ode to our Nichols park.

When you come to visit at our park, with your friends and with me, I did hope you'd come early some morn'g and we'd have dinner and tea.

But you could not come so early and have come this afternoon.

For at our park we always have beautiful suppers in June.

The things we will eat are so pretty all yellow, crimson and green.

They come from our farms and our gardens.

The nicest you ever have seen.

We'll do justice to them, and want to come again soon.

It will do you good just to hear of The picnic suppers at our park in June.

The people you'll meet are so merry, There's the president happy and gay.

And our county vice so cheery, Our see in her place all day.

The county contest worker always ready.

And our treasurer ever so steady, The flower mission lady always in line with the flowers in bloom.

Making our union the better, In this beautiful month of June.

So here's to our union for ever, Drink pure water to her as a toast.

And enjoy our humble endeavors, Of which there's nothing to boast.

To entertain, and come again soon, To our homes and our park, and to supper.

In the glorious month of June.

BANKERS HELD CONFERENCE HERE

Enthusiastic Gathering of Membership of Group Eight—Sessions Held at Country Club.

The sixth annual meeting of group eight of the Illinois Bankers' association was held in Jacksonville Wednesday and was a very successful event in every way. There were more than a hundred bankers here from the twelve counties in the group and a special car on the Wash-bash brought a number of Chicago bankers. The program as outlined in Wednesday's Journal was carried out in almost every particular.

Form 10 to 12 o'clock the visitors were taken in automobiles about the city and at 12:30 o'clock a dinner was served at the Country Club by Hood & Larson. At 1:30 o'clock the formal program began with an invocation by Rev. Howard D. French. Then Andrew Russell made a brief address of welcome and a response was made by T. S. Chapman of Jerseyville. Reports of officers followed and then came addresses, as follows: "National Reserve Association," Hon. Robert W. Thompson, Denver; "Improvements of Rivers and Harbors in Mississippi Valley," Thomas Wilkinson, Burlington, Iowa; "Good Roads," S. E. Dredt of DeKalb, chairman good roads committee, Illinois Bankers' association; "Good Roads in Adams County," Harvey Riggs, Quincy. At 6:30 o'clock a buffet luncheon was served and then followed an informal discussion of themes related to banking in which a score or more took part. M. E. Carrott of Quincy answered the legal questions propounded.

Then followed a brief social time, when I. H. Christian of Chicago put everybody in a good mood with some can't-live work, during which he was the leader in singing a number of the songs of the day.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Chairman—J. L. Miller, West Point. Vice chairman—J. R. Pearce, Quincy. Vice Chairman—T. S. Chapman, Jerseyville. Secretary-treasurer—E. H. Kinney, Beardstown. Executive council—Adams, H. E. J. Hicker, Quincy; Greene, S. E. Pierson, Carrollton; Morgan, C. B. Graff, Jacksonville; Brown, J. E. Albinson, Mt. Sterling; Hancock, Fred Salm, Jr., Nauvoo; Pike, John Weber, Barry, Cass, E. M. Condit, Beardstown; Jersey, H. A. Shepherd, Jerseyville; Schuyler, George Dyson, Rushville; Calhoun, Elmer E. Williams, Hardin; Menard, C. J. Savage, Tallula; Scott, E. L. Main, Bluffs.

All Jacksonville bank officers and directors served on the reception committee and the visitors were enthusiastic in their praises of the courtesies extended them. The program was a very excellent one and the meeting, perhaps, the best yet held. Abstracts of two of the addresses appear elsewhere in this paper.

Notes.
W. G. Edens of the Central Trust company of Chicago was one of the well known bankers here. Mr. Edens attends nearly all of the down state gatherings of bankers and is well known all over Illinois.

J. S. Aisthorpe, president of the First State Bank & Trust Co., of Cairo, was among the bankers in attendance. Mr. Aisthorpe has long been in the banking business, down in "Egypt" and holds an important place in business affairs there. He is a candidate now for the chairmanship of the executive council and if chosen he will be in line for the presidency of the association.

Original of Sam Waller.
The original of Sam Waller was Sam or Samlet Vale, who was well known as a London comedian who acted in the farce called "The Boarding House" and subsequently at Covent Garden Theater. Sam Vale was noted everywhere for his Vederisms, such as "Come on, as the man said to his tight foot," "I'm down on you, as the exchangest said to the candle," "Where shall we fly, as the bullet said to the trigger," and "Let every one take care of themselves, as the donkey observed when dancing among the chickens." Sam Vale died in 1848.

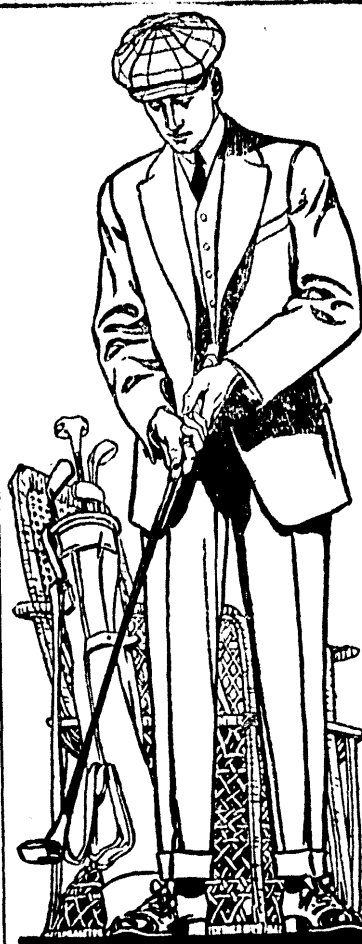

Clean Monday.
Clean Monday is particularly a Grecian institution. It is the day that ushers in the great Lenten fast at Athens, and the people go holiday making to eat Lenten fare on the hills around the city, while the shepherds and country people dance the ancient Greek dances in the old temples. This practice is termed "cutting the nose of Lent."

Earning a Spanking.
Host's Youngest—Don't your shoes feel very uncomfortable when you walk, Mrs. Nuryene? Mrs. Nuryene—Dear me, what an extraordinary question! Why do you ask, child? Host's Youngest—Oh, only 'cos pa said the other day since you'd come into your money you'd got far too big for your boots.—London Telegraph.

Musical Troubles.
Little Harold had just begun the study of music, and a visitor asked how he was getting along. "All right," he replied, "only I have trouble with the sharks and flaps."—Chicago News.

Mistress—Why, Norah, what ate you doing on that policeman's knee? Norah—Sure, mum, he's a restin' uel!—London Tit Bits.

BUILDING CAN STAND.

Unity Structure Condemned by Master in Chancery Can Be Remedied. Speaking of the Unity building in Chicago, the Chicago Record Herald of Tuesday had the following to say:

The Unity building, sixteen-story office structure on Dearborn street, between Randolph and Lake streets, was attacked as "unsafe and faulty in construction" by Charles B. Morrison, federal master in chancery, in a report made to the district court yesterday. The remedy suggested, however, is comparatively simple.

Mr. Morrison held the Illinois Tunnel company harmless for the condition of the building, declaring that the building has always been unsafe. The United Safe Deposit company alleged that the construction of tunnels near the foundation beams of the building was the cause of their weakening and asked that the federal court order the Illinois Tunnel company to right the office building.

After making a lengthy inquiry Mr. Morrison arrived at the following conclusions regarding the Unity building:

It never has stood erect since it was built.

The metal frame of the building is lighter than it should be for a structure of its size.

The construction work was poor and the structure was cheaply built.

The foundations under the building are overloaded from 30 to 40 per cent.

The Unity building now is and always has been unsafe, and there is danger of its collapse.

To remedy the condition he suggests in his report:

"That all that is necessary to make the building safe is to place foundations under it that will hold it firmly where it now is and prevent further settlement by the uprooting of about twenty concrete caissons where they are most needed."

It is also suggested that in order to make the building safe it is not necessary to right the building to plumb, but if the foundation is made firm and further settlement prevented the building can stand safely as it is.

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds himself regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak" the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

The finance committee reported the college to be in the best financial condition ever in its history. Plans were discussed for some extensive improvements in the buildings and the campus and a committee was appointed to look further into the matter before definite action was taken.

Only 50 Women Can Join The Hoosier Cabinet Club for $1.00

After you study the above picture you will not wonder that women are anxious to join the Hoosier club, when by so doing they have a Hoosier Cabinet delivered to their homes on payment of only $1.00.

Think of the hundreds of needless steps every woman you know could save by having her table, pantry and cupboard, with all her tools and supplies centered in one spot.

Your energy instead of being wasted is saved and the time spent in your kitchen—the least pleasant part of your work—is reduced by one-half, the moment this famous Hoosier Cabinet comes into your home.

The Hoosier company sends its 3,000 agents a limited number of Hoosier Cabinets each year to be sold under direct supervision of the factory on the famous Hoosier Club Plan.

This year most cities received only 25 cabinets. Our urgent request secured us 50 of these cabinets for the ladies of Jacksonville.

Only 50 women, therefore, can join the club and have a Hoosier Cabinet delivered immediately on payment of $1.00, balance in a few weekly payments of $1.00. Many already have enrolled.

The Club Plan differs radically from the installment plan which often is linked with high prices and unknown goods. The low price of the Hoosier Cabinet is fixed everywhere by the factory. No Hoosier agent can sell for less or more on any terms.

So club members get a great benefit from the liberal club terms. The club probably will be filled very quickly. Those who want Hoosier Cabinets should enroll their names at once.

VILLAGE BOARD MEET.

Trustees of South Jacksonville held regular meeting of the village board of South Jacksonville held Wednesday evening, with all members present with the exception of Messrs. Hemmings and Spencer, and with President Weber in the chair. It was reported that a number of the property owners had let contracts for walks and that the stakes would be set at once. The tax levy was discussed at considerable length and will be presented for action at the next meeting. It was decided to have a map made of South Jacksonville and the order for the same was given to E. M. Henderson, city engineer. The street and alley committee was instructed to get bids for street crossings.

WILL BE 90 YEARS OLD.
"Aunt" Martha Metcalf will be 90 years old next Saturday. No woman in Jacksonville is held in higher esteem and yesterday a large number of her friends assembled at her home on South Main street, where she lives with her son, Newton Metcalf, and family, and spent the day with her in celebration of her birthday. A delightful informal program was carried out, consisting of vocal numbers by Misses Katherine and Helen Barr, and readings by Miss Edith Reeve. "Aunt" Martha herself contributed to this feature with a poem, which she spoke. In the course of the afternoon's entertainment, refreshments were served and in every way the occasion was one of much pleasure, being especially enjoyed by Mrs. Metcalf, who delights to have her friends visit her.

CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICES.
Durbin church will observe Children's Day Sunday, May 9, at 10 a. m. All are welcome.

AVIATORS ANXIOUS TO COME.
The large number of applications received by the Jacksonville Business Men's Association from various aviation companies, which wish to conduct airship exhibitions here, indicate that should the business men decide to arrange for an aviation meet they would have no difficulty in securing a first class bird man. Wednesday representative of the Johnson Bros. company of Terre Haute was in the city with a proposition for a monoplane exhibition. Moussant, the French aviator, is another who has recently corresponded with local people. Most companies will arrange for either biplane or monoplane flights. The latter are coming to be more popular and are said to be more successful.

DELEGATES TO ASTORIA.
The Epworth League of the M. E. church at Alexander will be well represented at the district convention at Astoria. Among those who will attend are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Peyton, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wiley, Mrs. F. R. Fox, Rev. N. R. Johnson, Miss Fessie Grandjean and Miss Jessie McCall.

IN JUSTICE COURT.

Mrs. J. W. Halthman was arrested Wednesday by Constable Ferguson on the charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses, W. T. Reaugh being the complainant. Mrs. Halthman recently bought a pair of shoes at the Reaugh store and offered in payment a money order for $7, payable on the Chicago postoffice. As the shoes cost $2 she received $4 in change. Later when Mr. Reaugh went to have the order cashed it was returned to him marked "void." The Chicago postoffice authorities notified the bank here that a duplicate had been issued and that the order therefore could not be cashed. Mrs. Halthman denied that she got a duplicate of the order. Mr. Reaugh, in order to make good his loss, felt constrained to take action, and swore out the warrant. The hearing has been set for Wednesday morning, June 12, at 9 o'clock in Squire Henderson's court.

FIRST RACE MEET AT NEW BERLIN

Large Crowds Attend Opening of Season—List of Winners in Various Events.

The New Berlin Driving club held its first races of the season Wednesday afternoon before a crowd of 750 spectators. The track was in first class condition, but the heavy rain the latter part of the afternoon cut the program short. Much interest centered about the automobile race, a purse of $25 being offered for the person who lowered the 5 mile track record of 7:24, set in 1910 by Otto Funderburke of Springfield, who went against time in a Springfield car. George Wolke of this city attempted to lower the record, but failed to do so, on account of his engine not working well during the last part of the race. His time was 8:23. The running race had to be called off on account of the rain.

The following is a list of the events and the winners:

NAME STRICKEN FROM ROLL.

Springfield News: The name of William M. Morrissey of Jacksonville was stricken from the roll of attorneys by the supreme court today. He is the first member of the Morgan est centered about the automobile ment proceedings, and the attorneys hardly knew how to proceed.

The action has been pending for some time and the rule should have been made absolute at the last term of the supreme court but for the fact that the Morgan County Bar association failed to make the proper motion at that time.

HARNESSING A RIVER.

The Great Dam at Hamilton Nearing Completion.

Recently, through the courtesy of the state board of railroad commissioners, a party of gentlemen were afforded the privilege of inspecting the work, now nearing completion, that will bridge the Mississippi river between the enterprising town of Hamilton, Ill., and Keokuk, Iowa. The former is not a large place, but it is the abode of a few men with large ideas and with courage to back their ideas to the extent of their means. It was with a few men of Hamilton that the idea of bridging the Mississippi at the foot of Des Moines rapids originated, and it was too great for them to handle alone, and it was not until capital from all over the world had been enlisted that their hopes are nearing fruition—the completion of the greatest dam that has ever been built in this country. It will be 4,400 feet long and 53 feet high, and will probably be completed within the next six months. Only one structure of its kind in the world is larger—the Assuan dam across the upper Nile. It will develop 300,000 horse power, and in time will make Hamilton one of the great manufacturing cities of the state of Illinois. The rapids afford opportunity to develop power to an almost unlimited extent.

The immense barrier that is to control the flow of the "Father of Waters" will consist of three great divisions: first, a dam 4,400 feet long and 53 feet high, extending from the Illinois side in a straight line across the river; second, a power house 1,700 feet long, nearly parallel to the shore and at right angles to the main dam; third, a lock and dry dock—that will connect the southern end of the power house with the Iowa shore. The entire concrete will be nearly a mile and a quarter long, and more than half a million barrels of cement and 7,000 tons of steel will be used in its construction.

The dam itself consists of 119 massive concrete arches. These form a bridge, the level of which is 53 feet above the level of the bed of the river. Each of the spans of the bridge will be walled up to a point 32 feet from the river bottom. These inter-span walls will form the great spillway of the dam, and the level of the water may be maintained at a still higher level by the use of steel flash boards controlled from the top of the dam.

The great steel and concrete power house will be large enough to contain 30 turbine water wheels capable of generating 10,000 horse power each. The present plans, however, provide for the use of but half that number of turbines. The discharge from each turbine will pass through a great draft tube, 22 feet high, and 40 feet wide. Each of these tubes will be able to discharge 3,000 cubic feet of water a second. The electric generators attached to the 15 turbines will be able to produce 112,500 kilowatts of current, the equivalent of more than 150,000 horse power.

The great Mississippi river dam will be one of the largest power distributing centers in the world. It will serve a region inhabited by nearly 5,000,000 people, which contains no other water power development of any consequence. Up and down the Mississippi are the cities of St. Louis, Quincy, Hannibal and Alton. All these cities have excellent transportation facilities by rail and water. A large proportion of the output of the new power plant has already been contracted for. Sixty thousand horse power will be delivered to the electric light and power companies of St. Louis, 149 miles away, and there is reason to believe that the demand for power will exceed the capacity of the plant. The undertaking will cost more than six million dollars.

JACKSONVILLE PROOF.

Should Convince Every Jacksonville Reader.

The frank statement of a neighbor telling the merits of a remedy. Bids you pause and believe.

The same endorsement by some stranger far away.

Commands no belief at all. Here's a Jacksonville case. A Jacksonville citizen testifies.

Read and be convinced: Mrs. Hannah Lansing, 802 South Diamond street, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "I have never taken any other medicine that has benefited me as greatly as Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Armstrong's drug store. Several years ago when I was suffering severely from backache, I used this preparation and in a short time I was restored to good health. Another member of my family has also taken Doan's Kidney Pills and praises them highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ELKS FOR PORTLAND TRIP.

All members of the Elks Lodge of this city, their wives, children and friends, are included in a general invitation extended by St. Louis lodge, No. 9, B. P. O. E., to make the trip with that lodge to Portland, Ore., next July that will have as its object, a sight-seeing tour and attendance of the Grand Reunion of Elks in Portland.

Those who go will travel on a special train, leaving that city July 1, and returning 17 days later. Those who desire may stop off at Yellowstone Park for a week in that National wonderland. The trip will be via Kansas City, Denver, Colorado Springs, Salt Lake City and Portland, returning via Yellowstone and St. Paul.

WHEN BUYING, BUY ONLY BEST. Costs no more but gives best results. H. L. Blomquist, Esdale, Wis., says his wife considers Foley's Honey and Tar Compound the best cough cure on the market. "She has tried various kinds but Foley's gives the best result of all." J. A. Obermeyer, City drug store.

The Peevish Child Needs a Laxative

It is natural for a child to laugh and cry and when it sulkis drowsily or cries you may depend on it something physical is the matter. If you see evidences of a serious ailment you will not do wrong if you quietly give it a dose of mild laxative that evening on putting it to bed.

The remedy most generally recommended for this purpose is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which mothers throughout the country have been giving their children for a quarter of a century. Today thousands of families are using it where hundreds used it then, and there must be good reason for this word of mouth recommendation.

It is admittedly the perfect laxative for children, women, and people of all ages who need a gentle bowel stimulant and not a violent salt, cathartic pill or doctored water. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will act gently and when taken before retiring will bring comfort on a postal card will do.

DISCUSSED REFORM IN BANKING LAW

Former Congressman Bonyng Outlined Working Plan and Benefits of Proposed National Reserve Association.

At the gathering of group eight of bankers Wednesday, from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., a former congressman, Bonyng, a former member of the National Monetary commission, made an address explaining the plan for a national reserve association. Some points from the address are given here.

There is, unfortunately, a great deal of apathy on the part of the general public regarding the reform of our banking and currency law. It is erroneously assumed by many that these questions are problems to be solved primarily by the bankers. The truth is that every man engaged in any financial occupation, whether he has a bank account or not, is directly affected by the character of the country's banking system.

Owing to the indifference of a considerable number of the people to these questions, there are many serious misconceptions of the proper relations of banks and a general lack of understanding of the plan recently proposed by the National Monetary commission for a remodeling of our banking system.

Experience has demonstrated that our present system is wholly inadequate to the business needs of the people. Under an unusual strain in the banking system, and the plan proposed for their remedy. With such an education, we would have all the benefits and advantages that could be derived from a central bank, without any of the disadvantages attending the location of such an institution.

I have thus in the briefest possible manner outlined the defects in our banking system, and the plan proposed for their remedy. With such an education, we would have all the benefits and advantages that could be derived from a central bank, without any of the disadvantages attending the location of such an institution.

Benefits to be Derived. I have thus in the briefest possible manner outlined the defects in our banking system, and the plan proposed for their remedy. With such an education, we would have all the benefits and advantages that could be derived from a central bank, without any of the disadvantages attending the location of such an institution.

Banking Panics Impossible. The organization of the Reserve association would absolutely prevent banking panics. The experience of the world shows that they are preventable. The proper course to be pursued by banks upon the approach of a financial panic is to extend credit liberally at some figure to all solvent concerns. Our isolated banks are unable to adopt that method. Each bank under our system is compelled to look after its own interests only. Consequently, upon the first indication of a financial storm, each of the independent banks proceeds to draw in its reserves from its correspondents to call in its loans, and to refuse additional credit; thereby producing the very result which it is their highest duty to prevent.

The National Citizens' League. It will take the united effort of all the thoughtful people of the country to bring about this much needed reform. It is to be hoped that all patriotic citizens will give the National Citizens' League, which has been organized for the promotion of a sound banking system, their generous support in the great work which it has undertaken to perform. It is thus, and thus only, that the work so auspiciously begun shall finally result in legislation that will give to this country a modern and scientific banking system, adequate to carry the ever expanding business of the time, the richest and most progressive nation of the world.

WOULD IMPROVE RIVER TRAFFIC

Thomas Wilkinson of Burlington Explained to Bankers How Transportation Makes Difference in Living Cost to All the People.

Thomas Wilkinson of Burlington, Iowa, was a speaker at the Bankers meeting Wednesday and his theme was "Improvement of Rivers and Harbors in the Mississippi Valley." Mr. Wilkinson is president of the upper Mississippi river improvement association and is a man exceedingly well informed on river and drainage themes and his address was heard with interest. Some paragraphs of the address are given here.

It may be said that the average citizen does not know there is a transportation question. Nevertheless, transportation affects everything he buys or sells, everything he eats or wears, in fact all things, with the exception of air, sunshine and water. Now-days we hear a great deal about the tariff, which is undoubtedly an important question and probably deserves much of the attention being given it, but a question of more far-reaching importance is that of transportation, yet it is receiving very little attention from any source and practically none from the general public. Notwithstanding, it is a tax, and a heavy one, upon production and consumption, upon industry and commerce.

There are three methods of transportation known to all of you, the highway, the railway and the waterway. A waterway is distinguished for its availability, a cart or pack-horse can go where a railway would be impossible. The distinguishing characteristic of the railway, speed, and the fact that railways extend nearly everywhere into all parts of the country. While that of the waterway, is economy.

It is said that a horse, or its mechanical equivalent, a horse-power, can move two tons at the rate of three miles an hour on a fairly level road, fifteen tons in a cut on a railway and ninety-two tons in a boat on a waterway of a width and depth adapted to its use.

The estimated cost of wagon transportation on the average road in the United States is twenty-five cents per ton-mile. The average rate received by the railroads of the United States in 1908 was seven and eighty-two one hundred mills per ton-mile.

The average charge for the Great Lakes in 1907 was eight-tenths of one mill per ton-mile. Reducing these common every day figures means that a dollar will carry a ton of freight four miles on the average wagon roadway, one hundred, twenty-seven and one-half miles on a railroad, twelve hundred and fifty miles on the great lakes, and at least as far as on the great lakes on a first class river when completely improved. It thus appears that in economy the waterway far surpasses the railway.

The railroads today have an absolute monopoly of all inland transportation. Through dominating and unfair methods they have practically absorbed all inland water-traffic that once existed and made themselves lords of the situation. They cannot be blamed for taking to themselves everything in sight so long as they were allowed to do it. They have only carried out the instinct of human nature, in looking out for number one. The railroads are privately owned and are operated for private gain. The rivers are the people's highways of commerce and are free and open at all times to any one choosing to navigate them.

We have within our country about twenty-six thousand miles of navigable rivers flowing through the richest valleys on God's green earth. These rivers are capable of being extensively used as arteries of commerce, a complementary system of transportation in connection with the railroads, and although water transportation is much cheaper than rail transportation that there is no question as to its economy and efficiency when properly utilized, nevertheless, the rivers are not being used as they should be, because of the suppression on the part of the railroads under which they have so long suffered and the fact that they are destitute and entirely without any modern appliances for handling river-traffic at any of their ports.

To get the greatest benefit out of cheap water transportation requires the full, practical and independent use of our rivers, in the same manner as similar waterways are used to great advantage in other countries.

The first requirement is, the channel for navigation, the next, boats and barges, and equal essential and as important as either of the other requisites is adequate ports and terminals.

A great railroad manager said not long ago that "The problem of terminals is the greatest problem of the country, the problem of transportation agencies, of financiers, of the communities directly affected and of all industries that depend directly or indirectly upon cheap and speedy carriage for the commodities which they buy and sell."

Mind, you, this movement for the improvement and utilization of our inland waterways, the rivers, is, in no sense, a movement in any manner intended to be antagonistic to our great railroad industry which is furnishing the best rail service in the world.

The sole object of the movement is to secure to the public free use of these waterways and a harmonious co-operation between the two systems rail and water, that the people may enjoy the benefit of cheaper transportation through water carriage of their commerce, wherever it can be carried by water, and that these benefits may extend inland through the waterways through interchanges of traffic between the railways and the waterways.

In this movement all of you living in the Mississippi valley are deeply interested, for what benefits one portion of the community benefits all.

The business of the country is increasing so rapidly, expanding one hundred per cent every ten years, that increased facilities of transportation must be provided. To maintain railroad facilities equal to this enormous increase of traffic during the five years, will require the immense sum of eight and one-half billion dollars.

The rapid growth of the country and the congestion of traffic at all large business centers, demand, now and will demand in the future all the facilities of transportation that both railways and waterways can furnish.

There is no likelihood that in view of the increasing cost of terminals, equipment and operation, railroad charges for transportation will be reduced, but, on the contrary, these charges will move towards a higher level. Therefore, it becomes necessary to utilize every mile of our inland navigable waterways, to furnish this additional service to relieve the congestion of traffic which is inevitable in view of the commercial expansion of the country, and furthermore, to meet increasing competition both at home and abroad, it is imperative that the cheapest transportation possible, that American industries may compete successfully with those of other nations which utilize their waterways in transporting their commerce to all markets of the world.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Every Republican president since Lincoln, has been a native of Ohio. Major Fitzgerald of Boston is already stumpin' Massachusetts in his campaign to succeed to the seat of United States Senator Crane.

The lines are being drawn for a sharp political fight in West Virginia for the seat of United States Senator Clarence M. Watson, whose term will expire next March.

Verbal Democrats will meet in Montpelier on June 18 to name a state ticket and select delegates to the Democratic national convention at St. Louis.

Representative Lindbergh of the sixth Minnesota district, has announced his candidacy for the seat of United States Senator Clarence M. Watson, whose term will expire next March.

A. R. Maxwell of the Lawton News and Guthrie Star, a personal friend of Colonel Roosevelt, has entered the race for congressman at large from Oklahoma.

Iowa Prohibitionists will meet in State convention in Cedar Rapids on July 20 to make nominations to fill out the state ticket and adopt a platform.

William S. Cowherd, for many years a prominent member of the national house of representatives, is making a hard fight for the Democratic nomination for governor of Missouri.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the Democratic national convention at Baltimore this month has decided that the only portraits to be included in the convention hall decorations will be those of Washington, Jefferson and Jackson.

Henry Allen Cooper, who has represented the first district of Wisconsin in the lower house since 1893, is mentioned for second place on the Republican national ticket in the event that Roosevelt is nominated for president.

In the opinion of veteran political observers the unscrupulous delegates will probably determine the result of the Baltimore convention and the actual strength of the several candidates for the presidential nomination will probably not be known until the first ballot.

The Champ Clark supporters are talking of Congressman William C. Redfield of the fifth New York district for vice president on their ticket, and the head of a large manufacturing concern. He is now serving his first term in congress.

Among the men prominently mentioned on the Taft side for permanent chairman of the Republican national convention is Congressman Augustus P. Gardner of Massachusetts. Mr. Gardner is a son-in-law of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge. Other possibilities for the chairmanship are Senator Clarence D. Clark of Wyoming, who has occupied a seat in the senate since 1895, and Senator Charles E. Townsend of Michigan. Mr. Townsend served in the house from 1903 to 1911, when he was elected to the senate to succeed Senator Burrows.

Davenport, Iowa, June 5.—Davenport extended a cordial greeting to the hundreds of visitors who gathered here today for the sixth annual convention of the Iowa State Association of Elks. The meeting will last until Friday. In addition to the usual business sessions there will be a street parade, band contest and numerous features of entertainment.

Helped to Keep Down Expenses. Mrs. J. E. Henry, Akron, Mich., tells how she did so: "I was bothered with my kidneys and had to go nearly double. I tried a sample of Foley Kidney Pills and they did me so much good that I bought a bottle and feel that they have saved me a big doctor's bill." J. A. Obermeyer, City drug store.

WABASH EMPLOYS A "WATER DOCTOR"

Newly Appointed Official Will See That The Wabash Locomotives Drink Nothing But "Pure" Water.

"It has a stomach of iron" can no longer mean that a man may eat anything without fear of indigestion; for it seems that even stomachs of iron are thus afflicted.

Mr. W. A. Pownall, the newly appointed Water Inspector of the Wabash, says that locomotives have persistent attacks of "dyspepsia," and it is costing the railroads so much money that it has been put up to Mr. Pownall to work a "cure."

It seems that all waters have more or less of two kinds of mineral salts—"incrusting salts" and "alkali salts," Mr. Pownall terms them. These salts clog up the boiler very quickly and make it necessary to have the boiler "blown off" frequently, and now and then even taken out of service and washed. Both the blow-outs and the lay-offs mean a loss of money—the amount of which the railroads have now figured almost exactly.

By the liberal use of soda ash, through certain chemical processes, these "salts" can be practically eliminated from the water. However, as the waters vary at different points, the treatment must also vary; but the Wabash purpose to have the water at every point "cured" so that it will be exactly suited to locomotive consumption.

The cost of the treatment is about $17 per engine per year; but it is estimated that the saving on each engine because of the use of "cured" water will amount to over $400 per year. When it is realized that the Wabash has several hundred engines in service, it can be seen that a "water doctor" is a mighty handy official to have around; also a good investment.

Not only will the Wabash be benefited by the study of the local water conditions over its entire system, but industrial plants along the Wabash lines will be able to take advantage of Mr. Pownall's researches and thereby save themselves thousands of dollars annually in wear and tear to Grain Letter.

Chicago, June 5.—Wheat—Steady selling pressure, presumably for the account of important local bulls was a depressing factor. Outside demand poor; only a moderate demand came from shorts. In spite of continual repetition of damage news west, room traders became tired of supporting the market. Private reports which could not be fully confirmed, indicate rains more or less sufficient have fallen in Kansas and portions of Nebraska. In an event it is apparent that the weather is unsettled and there is strong prospect that the drought will be immediately broken. Even admitting the severe crop losses which undoubtedly exist, wheat would not be broken sharply on a wet weather map. H. W. Snows report indicating a total crop of 618,000,000 bushels based on reports of May 28, is rather bullish. He calls attention to the fact, however, that the severe weather has been since that time. This same authority makes the spring wheat acreage 9,200,000 acres or about 740,000 acres under last year. With the spring area short with winter wheat crop high in the soft wheat sections and seriously moved in the northwest. We think that wheat bought on any fair breaks will, if properly margin, however, will surely bring lower prices, at least for a time.

Corn—Demand from shorts advanced prices. Strength in oats was also a help. Related liquidation and a desire to put out short stuff checked the upturn. Crop news is excellent and there is every prospect of an enormous acreage with the probability of a record breaking crop. Recd. continue fairly good and cash demand is slow to follow the upturn. We believe that July corn will sell lower.

Oats—July scored a sharp advance as the result of a big over-night cash sales and a semi-panic among the recently enthusiastic and aggressive short sellers. Local stocks have been bid, but there is every indication that supplies here will be practically exhausted before July delivery passes into history. Spot oats command good prices over futures with country stocks of old oats well cleaned up. This condition is likely to continue. All advises tend to confirm that July will be an oil crop delivery. July oats are heavily overvalued and we advise strongly their purchase to hold. We look for severely congested market in July. September is too cheap relatively and will respond quickly to any bull help. Snow estimates the new crop area 37,433,000 acres, against 38,450,000 last year. Condition 90.7 per cent. Crop ten days to three weeks late in principal states. Heading period is almost certain to be in hot weather, causing the crop to suffer severely. No forecasts the government estimate at 1,097,000.

END OF YEAR AT ILLINOIS COLLEGE

EIGHTY-THIRD COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES WERE HELD ON THE CAMPUS WEDNESDAY.

"The West" Furnished Theme for Prof. Shambaugh, Who Addressed Assembly—Diplomas Awarded to Twenty-one Graduates—President Rammelkamp Makes Good Report for Year.

The 83rd year of usefulness at Illinois college has drawn to a close and the commencement exercises are a matter of history. Certainly the faithful president, Dr. Rammelkamp, the faculty and friends of the college have many reasons for feeling proud of the record. The commencement exercises took place as usual under the spreading trees of the campus and attracted an interested audience, which was large and fully appreciative. Everything passed off without a hitch and all was profitable for the success of the occasion. The gathering was notable for the presence of a good number of past students and friends from a distance, though as time passes by some who were faithful to come back at this time of the year are no more and others are filling their places.

The procession of faculty, trustees, graduating class, alumni and guests of honor formed as usual at the gymnasium and marched in procession to the platform and took their respective places and after a selection by the orchestra President Rammelkamp called on Dean Hayden to offer prayer, which was done.

Of the addresses which followed only a very brief outline is possible.

Plea for Responsibility.
The first was Miss Eleanor Capps, whose theme was "A Plea for Responsibility."

Nearly 100 years ago a prophet saw great things for the future, but Tennyson, with all his insight into the future had little idea of what the future would bring forth in the awarding to woman her proper place in the world and an education equal to that of her favored brothers, and she has been ushered into a greater and higher sphere.

Factories and many causes have taken from her some of the occupations which she enjoyed years ago and so it is imperative if she would accomplish the greatest good that greater possibilities should be hers also. The new woman is now permitted to drink deeply at the fountain of knowledge which is no longer sealed to her. The aim of society is individualistic and a greater opportunity is afforded woman than she ever enjoyed before. When the noble band organized Illinois college it was for men and the good founders didn't think at the time of the girls who would want knowledge. She has gained much since, but every foot of advancement has been contested. The ladies' Educational society has done a grand work and its usefulness is not yet at an end.

Service of the Chemist.
The next speaker was Frank Garm Norbury, whose theme was "The Service of the Chemist." We live in an age of science, scientific methods are essential in all things and chemistry plays a very important part. It has wonderfully increased the efficiency of things used in every day life and still greater things are before it. Applied chemistry is all important, but theoretical must come first. In our land we have ten times as many chemists as we had 20 years ago and their work is constantly being enlarged. The work of the engineer and architect is all important, but until recently the work of the chemist was not so regarded. A few years ago India supplied the indigo which the world used. It was a vegetable product and the cost was great, but the chemist went to work. A man gave 35 years of patient toil and search to the task and now the supply of the manufactured product amounts to twenty millions annually.

Nitrogen and its compounds have accomplished wonderful things. Nitrates were formerly procured only from Chili, but when the chemists saw the supply was likely to be exhausted, they set themselves to work and secured a manufactured product. Rubber is another triumph of the chemist and these are but a very few of the things accomplished by this wonderful science. In large manufacturing establishments the laboratories are in charge of men, seeking to ascertain useful facts and the work is ever going on.

Chemistry has been of great use in the analysis of foods and safeguarding injurious ingredients. Drugs are largely the products of chemistry and in thousands of ways is the science useful in business. The villian is often foiled by the science of chemistry and it has done more than anything else to keep down the cost of living. In agriculture its benefits have been well nigh incalculable. For the farmer has learned to fertilize the soil and produce the best results. Pasture gave to the world some of the most valuable and wonderful discoveries of the age. For the masses it has taught how to secure better health and it is a great uplifter of man. Hitherto in war and politics men have gained the greatest renown and served their country in a way to earn the name of the greatest patriots, but now science opens up a field which the scholar may enter with feeling that he will be a benefactor to his race.

Greatness of the West.
Prof. Benjamin F. Shambaugh, professor of political science in the University of Iowa, delivered the address of the day. His theme was "The West." It would be a pleasure to report the extended address in full, as it was fine, but lack of space makes its impracticable. President Rammelkamp introduced the gentleman with words of highest praise. He said the historical society of Iowa was the envy of all similar societies in the west and no one had done as much for its advancement as the gentleman who was about to address the audience.

The gentleman said it was a great pleasure to be present and he paid a well deserved tribute to the worthy president of Illinois college, whose high standard of education had wrought such great good in the field of learning. It was indeed a pleasure to come to a college with such a record as that possessed by Illinois, whose young ladies are coming into a larger sphere and whose young men are being prepared to contribute their share to the welfare of the world through scientific attainments.

The gentleman then proceeded with his address.
"By the west I do not mean the Pacific slope, not the valley of the Mississippi but the world included in the original 13 states. Such only is a geographical definition. The west has no accurate geographical definition but is limited to a state of mind. The west is where a man of the east is where he came from. The west is a story of vitality, progress and efforts of pioneers. As a locality it is shifting but as a state of mind it is America. Columbus was the first westerner in the true sense of the word. He led the way to a new world and was followed by many others, Amerigo Vesputius, LaSalle, Marquette, Balboa and many others.

Thomas Jefferson was the very picture of a progressive westerner. The revolutionary war came and July 4, 1776 witnessed the grand declaration that all men are created free and equal and that all governments derived their just powers from the consent of the governed. When the nations of the world waked up they saw the old world with people on a political equality. Independence did not die July 4, 1776, nor did patriotism end at Yorktown. Over the mountains went the pioneers with their white topped wagons seeking homes in the sunny west. They stopped at the Mississippi river and promised the Indian to let him have that west of the great river, but the greedy white man saw the good land again the aborigines were driven further toward the setting sun. They pursued on and finally the frontier border was merged in the Pacific ocean.

"The first settlers of this land were from England and Holland; later came the German and Irishman and still later those from Southern Europe. All have made a great nation which is the wonder and admiration of the world. The pioneers of the west were brave, liberal minded, open hearted and hospitable and did a great work. They were honest and brave and posterity owes them a great debt. Though serious minded they were always busy and to this day their ideas of thrift prevail to a great extent among the posterity. Judge Douglas used to say the wide prairies developed him in a manner impossible with his native Vermont. The early settlers did not believe in late dinners and late rising; they called each other by their given names and were social without distinction. All worked and the man who wouldn't do this had occasion to leave. They saw a man here in a man and treated him accordingly. They believed in equal rights before the law and felt that the law was to protect honest men in their rights. They turned millions of acres into fertile fields, teeming with crops for the food of the world and in later years they loved to tell stories of the early days.

History should preserve the memory for they were brave men and women who prepared the way for us of today. History should do them justice and in each city there should be a historical society whose work it would be the collection and preservation of historical facts connected with the early days of the country. Bancroft and other historians have told much but far too much has been left unsaid. We want to study the clan, the tribe, the community. Behold in our day a new born west. Never were there greater opportunities than at present and never was more demanded of good men. Let us all do our part in the great work."

The able address was received with great interest and at the close the applause was long and hearty.

President's Report.
The president then read his annual report as follows:

We celebrate today the seventy-eighth annual commencement of Illinois college. It is the eighty-third year since the founding of the institution, but the trustees and faculty waited five years after instruction began before they were willing to send forth the first graduating class. These five years that elapsed between the January morning when Julian M. Sturtevant met the first students in Beecher hall and the day when Spillman and Yarnall secured the first diplomas ever granted are not only evidence of the lack of preparatory education in the middle west in those days, but they also bear testimony to the fact that the early faculty of the college established good standards. They insisted that the students who were to carry off the first diplomas should complete a creditable college course. I am glad to say that the work so well begun continues today. The faculty is holding aloft, higher than ever, the standards of the college.

College Faculty and Work of Instruction.
It is the general consensus of opinion among the members of the faculty that our students have done unusually good work during the year just closing. This year for the first time since the system was established, the faculty awarded final honors to two seniors for general success in scholarship, and departmental honors to two seniors for unusual proficiency in certain departments of work. One of our seniors has been awarded a graduate scholarship in chemistry at the University of Illinois and another senior has been appointed an assistant in chemistry at Princeton university.

Next fall the new entrance requirement of fifteen units will become effective. I explained in the report of last year on account of the more limited choice of electives, our new requirement is really higher than that of many institutions which demand the same number of entrance units. In this connection, I am frank to say that I do not believe the problem of entrance requirements has been solved either at Illinois college or perhaps at any other institution in the middle west.

Prof. Clarence O. Harris, who has been in charge of the department of Greek and Latin, will not return to the college next fall. During the five years of his service on the faculty of the institution, Dr. Harris has proved himself an efficient teacher and a scholar of the highest ideals. The trustees have appointed as his successor Dr. Rollin H. Tanner, during his past year instructor in classics in Princeton university. Mr. Tanner has done post graduate work at Chicago university and at Princeton, where he has recently taken his doctor's degree. His teaching experience includes one year in the Kenyon military academy of Gambier, Ohio, eight years in the Central high school of Cleveland, Ohio, and one year as instructor at Princeton.

Prof. William C. Williams of the department of mathematics and physics has been granted a leave of absence for the next academic year. He will spend the year in advanced study at the University of Chicago, where he has been awarded a fellowship in astronomy. It is a pleasure to express our appreciation to the valuable services rendered to the college by Professor Beal during the nine years that he has been one of our colleagues. We congratulate him upon the honor which he has won at a sister institution and we hope that at the beginning of the academic year 1913, he may resume his place in the affairs of Illinois college. The trustees have not at present appointed a successor to Professor Beal, but we are in correspondence with several candidates and it is hoped that an appointment will soon be made.

Last summer, after the annual commencement exercises, our department of mathematics and physics became vacant. The trustees elected to fill the vacancy Mr. Sherman Leavitt who was appointed with the rank of assistant professor. Mr. Leavitt is a graduate of Washington university of St. Louis, where he also spent several years in post-graduate study, receiving in 1904 the degree of master of science. Professor Leavitt has had extensive experience in the commercial branches of chemical work, including service as chemical expert for the city of St. Louis, and several years work in the federal bureau of chemistry in Washington and at the agricultural experiment station of the state of Tennessee.

Professor Leavitt has published several important monographs in the fields of pure and applied chemistry. The trustees at the annual meeting this morning promoted him from the rank of assistant professor to full professorship.

Mr. Darwin O. Clark, who came to the college last fall as instructor in history and political science, has been promoted to the rank of assistant professor. Professor Clark, after graduation from Drury college, Missouri, and several years' experience in secondary school work, spent three years in graduate study at the University of Illinois.

By joint action of the faculty and trustees, provision has been made for awarding diplomas at the end of the first as well as at the end of the second semester. No commencement exercises will be held at the end of first semester, but students who at that time have fulfilled the requirements for graduation may, upon request, receive their diplomas. As a part of this same policy, the faculty is making more adequate provision so that students may enter the college at the beginning of the second semester.

I insert the usual statistics showing the registration in the different departments and the preferences of students in the selection of their major studies. In considering the registration by departments, it is not to be forgotten that work in certain courses is required of all students.

Conservatory of Music and Department of Art

The Conservatory of Music has had another most successful year. The public recitals of the faculty and their students have been of the usual high order of merit. We have reason to congratulate ourselves that the music faculty will remain nearly intact next year. We are about to lose the services of Miss Alma Forsythe, already known to the friends of the school for her skill on the violin, has been appointed assistant in this department for the next academic year. Three students have received teachers' certificates and have been awarded the highest honor of the school at this commencement. In commenting on the work of the Conservatory, it is a pleasure to acknowledge the generous and efficient aid given by the Reverend Howard D. French of the State Street Presbyterian church in training the Illinois College chorists. We are looking forward with hope to the successful success of Director Kritch and his able colleagues.

Mrs. J. Parker Doan, who has been giving instruction in art during the past year, was unable to accept the reappointment offered to her, and accordingly the trustees have named as her successor Miss Marie Chambers of Jacksonville. Miss Chambers has been a student at the Art Institute and will this spring be graduated from the Chicago School of Applied and Normal Art.

Whipple Academy.
The preparatory department under the efficient direction of Principal Robinson has been moving steadily forward. The number of students has been increasing and the standards of scholarship that have always distinguished the department have not only been maintained but raised.

During the year the school has been placed upon the accredited list of the University of Illinois and of the National Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools. The latter is an organization of the best colleges and secondary schools of the middle west and is most rigid in the exaction of good standards from schools admitted to its accredited list. In addition to the above, Whipple Academy is also on the accredited list of such institutions as Wellesley, Smith, Mt. Holyoke, and the University of Chicago. In fact, students can prepare in Whipple Academy for the best colleges and universities of the country and gain admission on certificate to practically all colleges that admit students on that basis.

It is unfortunate that we must lose the services of the present principal, but I believe that we have found in Mr. Samuel O. Welday, who has been appointed principal of Whipple Academy and instructor in the college, a competent successor to Mr. Robinson. Mr. Welday is a graduate of Ohio university and has had five years of experience in the public schools of Ohio.

After the announcements of last June, Miss Jeannette Reed was appointed instructor in Latin and German in Whipple Academy. Miss Reed is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan university. I am glad to report that she will continue on the faculty of the department next year.

Academy Hall.
Mrs. Jeannette S. Garrison was appointed in the summer of 1911 as head of Academy hall. At the same time that her appointment is recorded in this annual statement, I would express our appreciation of her success in the management of Academy hall. Mrs. Garrison came to us after several years' experience as head of Highland House at Smith college.

It is probable that hereafter the rule of requiring non-resident girls to remain at Academy hall will be more rigorously enforced. The college has important responsibilities in looking after the comfort and proper discipline of the young ladies who come to the institution. These are responsibilities which the college cannot escape even if it would. The rule of requiring non-resident girls to remain at Academy hall will be more rigorously enforced. The college has important responsibilities in looking after the comfort and proper discipline of the young ladies who come to the institution. These are responsibilities which the college cannot escape even if it would.

The total registration of different students in all departments of the institution for the year is 283. Nineteen students received degrees this commencement; thirteen were graduated from Whipple Academy, and five received certificates and diplomas from the Conservatory. The graduates from all departments therefore, numbered 37.

Among the things that ought soon to be done still further to improve student life on the hill, are the connection of Beecher hall with the central heating plant, and the improvement of the equipment of the gymnasium. Beecher hall, in the severe winter of winter, in spite of the exertions of prudential committees, is almost a closed building. If it could be continuously heated during the winter months, it might become a social center for the men of the college as well as the scene of occasional forensic contests. The board of trustees has put itself on record as willing to furnish the heat from the central heating plant, provided the societies which occupy the building will pay for the connections and installation of the necessary radiators. Twelve hundred dollars would probably pay the expenses of connecting Beecher hall with the central heating plant of the college. I feel sure that the trustees are expecting to do something to improve the equipment of the gymnasium.

In the midst of so many things to do in connection with our student life, I hesitate to mention anything that may appear in the light of criticism. But may I not express the hope that next year we shall again have a joint debate? May the active and alumni members of both societies exert themselves to see that the good and ancient custom of the joint debate is restored.

The College Library.
The plans for the future progress of the college must include some provision for the development of the library. It is not possible to build up a strong college without adequate library facilities. Fortunately, we have the foundation for a good library; in number of volumes and quality, our library will compare favorably with other college libraries of the state. Various friends have made gifts to the library during the year. We would particularly mention several hundred volumes from the private collection of the late Professor Harvey W. Milligan, donated by his son and daughter. Other gifts of books and periodicals were received from several other individuals and organizations. Through the efforts of Professor Ames and as a result of gifts from alumni and the Sigma Pi Literary society, a complete, bound edition of the Rambler has been added to the library. It is probable that the valuable collection of the late Dr. Hiram K. Jones will also soon become available to our students. Miss Mary Rhoads has donated a large, handsomely framed photograph of a bust of Homer to the library. This kind friends have been very generous in membership the library from year to year, but we imperatively need a much larger library endowment that will enable us to keep our collection well stocked with the latest books in all departments of college work. The time will probably soon come when we shall require a new library building.

Finances.
Perhaps the most notable event of the year is the balance of several hundred dollars shown on the books of the college. For years and years under one administration and another at each commencement, the trustees have been obliged to report a deficit. Thank God, the budget for next year calls for several improvements in the college plant and for the increase of salaries of the professors. We wish we could plan to do more, but at least progress has begun. Our total productive endowment is now about $385,000; the plant of the college is estimated at about $315,000 so that the total value of both plant and endowment is about $700,000. If I were to enumerate the endowment needs of the college somewhat in order of their importance, I should list them as follows:
Endowment for new instructors, $250,000.
Endowment for supplies, repairs and miscellaneous, $50,000.
New library building and endowment, $100,000.

Such an additional endowment, with the increased income that might be expected from a larger plant, would enable the college to adopt a salary schedule of $2,500 for full professors. I hope the friends of the college will catch this enlarged vision of our future. It is not an idle dream; it is not as impossible as was the raising of a quarter of a million dollars six years ago. We accomplished it, and with a resolute, enthusiastic, prayerful spirit, we can reach the new and higher goal. That is what I see as I look from the hill top.

Alumni Luncheon.
Then came the alumni luncheon in the gymnasium, which was indeed an inspiring scene and occasion. The dinner was nice and appetizing, well served by the good ladies of Northminster church and was much enjoyed. Good music was supplied during the dinner and all was pleasant and successful.

After all had eaten President A. T. Capps of the Alumni association, called the gathering to order and with suitable words announced E. Bentley Hamilton of Chicago toastmaster and though the gentleman had had but short notice of what he was to do he performed his duties with characteristic ability and eloquence. It is impossible to do more than name the speakers and their sentiments. All did admirably and each address breathed a spirit of true loyalty to the college.

"The Class of 1912"—John M. Phillips.
At this point Enslay Moore arose from the 1868 table and said he had to leave, but wanted the eight members of his class present to rise and let people see them. He said the only one present directly connected with the college at the time his class graduated was Mrs. Tanner and in her honor he presented her the class card which was conspicuously placed on the table. The good lady received the honor with thanks. The toastmaster said he had in mind a project to have erected on the campus some kind of a monu-
